Crackdown on faulty number plates begins

Traffic ACP chases two-wheeler with a concealed registration number; seizes vehicle on Devaraj Urs Road

ACP (Traffic) Parashuramappa seizing a two-wheeler with a faulty number plate on D. Devaraj Urs Road last evening after a chase from Jayachamaraja Wadiyar Circle.

Mysuru, Oct. 4 (RK&BCT)- The City Traffic Police have launched a crackdown on vehicle owners using defective, decorative or illegal number plates.

This enforcement drive, which began on Oct. 1, has been authorised by City Police Commissioner Ramesh Banoth and is under the supervision of Deputy Commissioners of Police (DCPs) M. Muthuraj and S. Janhavi.

It is part of a comprehensive strategy to curb crime in the run-up to Dasara, as some vehicles have affixed stickers on their number plates to evade identification and detection.

During the operation last evening, ACP (Traffic) Parashuramappa seized a two-wheeler with a faulty number plate. The incident occurred around 6 pm near Jayachamaraja Wadiyar Circle (formerly known as Hardinge Circle) when he spotted a two-wheeler with a concealed number plate.

The rider had pasted a sticker on the registration plate of his Hero Honda bike and was speeding. The ACP signalled the rider to stop, but he sped away. A chase ensued and the two-wheeler was eventually apprehended on Devaraj Urs Road. The rider was later identified as Purushottam from Naguvanahalli village in Srirangapatna.

Injustice to Karnataka in Cauvery Water Dispute

Congress, BJP, JD(S) and legal team equally responsible

Irrigation expert Arjunahalli Prasanna Kumar says parties were passive when in power but played politics when in Opposition

Mysuru, Oct. 4 (BLU&BCT)- Irrigation expert Arjunahalli Prasanna Kumar has levelled serious allegations against the Congress, BJP and JD(S), holding them responsible for the injustices faced by Karnataka's farmers in the contentious Cauvery water-sharing dispute.

He stressed that there is no inherent bias in the justice system when it comes to addressing Karnataka's concerns regarding the Cauvery dispute. Regrettably, none of the political parties have displayed genuine interest in pursuing justice for Karnataka in this critical matter.

Irrigation expert Arjunahalli Prasanna Kumar during an interaction in city yesterday.

Speaking at an interaction programme organised by the Mysuru District Journalists' Association (MDJA) at Pathrakarthara Bhavan yesterday, Arjunahalli Prasanna Kumar declared that the ultimate hope for resolving the long-standing Cauvery water dispute lies with the Chief Justice of India or the President of India.

VVCE MBA students bag Best Project of the Year Award

Mysuru, Oct. 4- The students of the Department of Business Administration, Vidyavardhaka College of Engineering (VVCE), Mysuru, have bagged "Best Project of the Year Award" in MBA stream.

They won the award for the topic "A study on evaluation of logistics drivers impact on agricultural supply chain performance of farmers with respect to vegetables at Mysuru region" in 'Student Project Programme – 46th series', organised by Karnataka State Council for Science and Technology (KSCST), an autonomous organisation under the Department of Science and Technology, Government of Karnataka, IISc., campus, Bengaluru.

The final project exhibition and seminar was conducted recently at Alva's Institute of Engineering and Technology, Moodbidri.

The project was successfully presented by four final year MBA students D. Jatin Kumar, K.N. Hrithik Gowda, Rajesh Rathod and D.C. Suhas under the guidance of Dr. I.C. Somashekhar, Associate Professor and Dr. PSV Balaji Rao, Professor and Head, Department of Business Administration, VVCE, Mysuru.

EDITOR'S BOTTOMLINE

The 'India Ageing Report 2023', released by the United Nations Population Fund, formerly the United Nations Fund for Population Activities (UNFPA), has confirmed apprehensions about the fast-paced greying of India and its implications for the country. The report says the number of senior citizens (above 60 years) will double to 20.8% of the population by 2050 from 10.5% in 2022. This will be about 350 million people, compared to 150 million now. The projection is in line the government's 'Youth in India 2022' report, which saw the elderly population rising to 14.9% in 2036 and rising further thence. The increasing share of elderly population will mean a relative shrinking of the working population. India's demographic dividend phase began in 2010 when the working age population (20 to 59 years) accounted for 51% of the population. This has risen steadily. But now, it may be offset by the rising numbers of senior citizens in the coming decades.

The report calls for formulation of government policies that will cater to the welfare of the elderly population. They need enhanced and wider healthcare facilities and social security, including pension, to live with dignity. The report has found that over 40% of the elderly fall in the poorest wealth quintile. The country should make more investments in terms of money, infrastructure and human resources in geriatric care. Geriatrics as a branch of medical care has not received much attention in the country. The need for institutional and community support for the elderly population becomes especially important because of the emergence of nuclear families and the weakening of the traditional support systems. The report has said that the oldest segment of the population will have a "predominance of widowed and highly dependent very old women" because of the higher life expectancy of women. This will pose a special challenge.

Employee swaps paintings, sells originals

Munich: A German museum employee was recently arrested for reportedly swapping several paintings with fake copies and selling the originals to fund a lavish lifestyle.

Due to Germany's strict privacy laws, the identity of the 30-year-old former employee of the Deutsches Museum in Munich has not been disclosed to the public, but it has been reported that he admitted to replacing at least four paintings with copies in the period that he worked there (2016 – 2018). He allegedly sold the works of art at several auctions, using the money to pay off debts and then buy luxury goods, including a Rolls-Royce and expensive wristwatches. The auction house involved in the sale of three of the stolen paintings said that it "simply wasn't possible to identify them as stolen property," adding that it collaborated with authorities during the investigation.

Ice cream made with recycled plastic

London: A UK designer claims to be the first to ever make ice cream with vanilla flavoring sourced from recycled plastic. While no one has tasted it yet, it's supposed to taste just like regular vanilla ice cream.

As part of final-year project at Central Saint Martins Design School, Eleonora Ortolani set out to do something no one had ever attempted, — use a small amount of plastic to make ice cream. The project, titled Guilty Flavours, was inspired by the young designer's frustration with how plastic was generally being recycled. Having recently heard about a species of worm that could digest plastic bags, she started wondering if there was any way humans could eat plastic, break it down, and eliminate it for good.

Because this is a world's first, no one is allowed to eat it until it is studied and deemed safe for consumption.

Debris disposal and management: Suggestions

Sir,

There seems to be no system in place for proper disposal and management of debris in Mysuru city. Many people including the Corporators and MCC officials do not seem to be aware regarding proper disposal of debris and other waste materials. My suggestion is as follows:

1. A Helpline should be available 24 x 7 to guide the citizens for proper disposal of debris.

2. A few tractors/trucks could be made available by Mysuru City Corporation for proper disposal of debris.

3. The concerned citizens of Mysuru could draw the attention of MCC with photos of the debris.

4. The City Corporation could fix a rate for picking up and taking the debris.

5. Amount as agreed should be paid online and receipt given for the same.

6. This will ensure the citizens do not undergo the hassle to find out a private debris disposal agent who invariably will demand unsystematic and abnormal charges.

7. There is very high chance that such debris will not be taken to the proposed recycling plant at Hanchya-Sathagalli.

I request the MCC Commissioner to resolve this problem on a war-footing as Dasara is nearing and the garbage clearance must be given top priority anticipating tourist rush in the city centre and tourist places.

Mysuru, Oct. 4 (BCT)- An eye camp, organised with the tagline "Clear vision is the key to success," was conducted by Christ the King Convent (CKC) Alumni Association in collaboration with Lions Club of Mysuru Classic, District 317G at CKC Convent School on Sept. 2, 3, 20 and 21.

Its purpose was to assess the eyesight of students, teachers, staff and parents. The camp was held under the guidance of Rev. Sister Anjali, Manager of CKC School, Rev. Sister Arpitha, Head Mistress of Nursery, Primary and Higher Primary, Rev. Sister Manjari, Head Mistress of High School and Rev. Sister Beena of Public School.

MLA K. Harishgowda, an alumnus of the school, inaugurated the camp. The guest of honour was Ln. N. Subramanya, First Vice District Governor of District 317G and alumnus.

Notable attendees included K.S. Bharath Urs, Vice-President of CKC Alumni Association, and Secretary Ln. Arun Mandal, who is also the First Vice-President of Lions Classic.

The camp also received support from Dr. Mohammed, an ophthalmologist from Yelwala Optical and Eye Care, Ln. D. Ramachandra, Zone Chairperson of District 317G, Ln. M. Ramesh, President of Lions Club of Mysuru Classic, Ln. M.R. Dharmaraj, Secretary and Ln. C.J. Jeevan, Treasurer.

The camp evaluated the eyesight of students, provided necessary prescriptions and spectacles to those with weak vision. In all, the eyesight of 1,757 students and 71 teaching and non-teaching staff were checked and a comprehensive database prepared and stored.

Three stages of eye tests were conducted. Students, teachers, staff and parents with weak vision were provided spectacles with lenses tailored to their specific needs. Sponsors donated spectacles to 25 students.

Additionally, each student received counselling alongside teachers and parents about the importance of regularly wearing spectacles. The event proved to be highly beneficial and alleviated concerns for parents, as it helped prevent further deterioration of their children's vision.

GTD heaps praises on PM Modi, justifies JD(S) alliance with NDA

Mysuru, Oct. 4 (BLU&BCT)- Heaping praises on the dedicated efforts and unwavering commitment of Prime Minister Narendra Modi to the nation and its interests, MLA G.T. Devegowda (GTD) expressed confidence that Modi will return to power as Prime Minister in the 2024 Lok Sabha elections due to his widespread support from crores of Indians.

Devegowda stated, "If Modi's return as PM is certain, it's equally certain that the Congress will be bankrupt and lose its existing support base. The JD(S) has aligned with the BJP to decimate the Congress."

The MLA was speaking at the inauguration of an Old Age Home at Shakthi Layout in Lingambudhi Palya on Oct. 2. This senior citizens' living facility was constructed by Shree Kaveri Kodagu Mahila Sangha in Mysuru.

JD(S) leader and former Prime Minister H.D. Deve Gowda endorsed the party's alliance with the BJP-led NDA to counter the I.N.D.I.A. bloc led by the Congress. GTD mentioned, "I was among those who convinced former PM Deve Gowda about the necessity of challenging the Congress, which is opposing the nation-building initiatives spearheaded by PM Modi. Additionally, Modi and Deve Gowda share a cordial relationship."

G.T. Devegowda

Reflecting on past initiatives, GTD noted that when H.D. Deve Gowda was the Prime Minister, he attempted to secure approval for a 33 percent reservation for women, which faced opposition from various parties.

"Now, PM Modi's Government has successfully passed the Women's Reservation Bill, earning praise for the manner in which it was achieved. Those who initially opposed the Bill have since remained silent. Furthermore, Modi has implemented several nation-centric initiatives, such as the Swachh Bharat Mission, which has garnered widespread national support."

None can match Modi's charisma

Regarding the Opposition alliance, G.T. Devegowda observed, "Many parties have united to form an alliance solely to oppose Modi. However, it's worth noting that there is no leader in the I.N.D.I.A. bloc who can match Modi's charisma."

Devegowda also criticised Chief Minister Siddharamaiah for addressing PM Modi in singular, saying, "I advised Siddharamaiah to address the PM with due respect and not belittle the PM's post. Unfortunately, Siddharamaiah continues to address the PM as 'hey Modi,' which is disrespectful."

"PM Modi has adeptly managed numerous national and international crises affecting India, earning acclaim both domestically and globally. He values people based on their contributions, rather than their party affiliations. Despite unwarranted criticism from the Congress and other parties, his personal image and popularity continue to grow daily. It is essential for us to support Modi, transcending party lines," added GTD.

Continuing his criticism on Siddharamaiah's governance, GTD remarked, "While the Central Government provides rice, Siddharamaiah has rebranded the same rice scheme as 'Anna Bhagya' for self-promotion. Additionally, the ongoing drought has left us without drinking water, while the Siddharamaiah Government continues to release water to Tamil Nadu, depleting our reservoirs."

He further stated, "Siddharamaiah claims to have fulfilled all pre-poll promises, but this has resulted in a lack of development in Karnataka. Funds for plans and development are scarce and the State's infrastructure is deteriorating. The Congress Government has placed the State in dire straits, raising questions about the purpose of making promises without delivering development."

Retired Dy.SP Vijaykumar arrested in cheating case

Mysuru, Oct. 4- Retired Dy.SP Vijaykumar, who is named as the second accused in a cheating case and had gone absconding, has been arrested by Lakshmipuram Police yesterday.

The Police had arrested prime accused former Corporator R. Somasundar on Sept. 28 and had produced him before a Magistrate who had remanded him to judicial custody. Vijaykumar, who is accused of helping the prime accused in cheating had gone absconding.

The two accused, who had promised to get a MUDA site to one Venkataraju, a fast food vendor, had reportedly taken Rs. 12 lakh from him (Venkataraju), and had given fake site documents to Venkataraju.

When Venkataraju came to know that the documents were fake after he got them checked, had lodged a complaint against Somasundar and Vijaykumar with Lakshmipuram Police. A FIR was registered on Sept. 25.

Will bid political adieu on Mar. 17: MP Prasad

Chamarajanagar, Oct. 4 (SS& BS)- Chamarajanagar BJP MP V. Sreenivasa Prasad who will be completing 50 years in politics on Mar. 17, 2024 will be announcing his retirement from active politics on the same day.

This was announced by MP Prasad himself while speaking to media persons here yesterday.

"I am satisfied with my career in politics all these years. I will neither issue any political statements henceforth nor campaign on behalf of any political party during elections. I will also not propose any names from our family to contest the forthcoming elections," affirmed Prasad.

V. Sreenivasa Prasad

Reacting to a query on BJP-JD(S) alliance, MP Prasad said that "It's not fair to harp on the alliance, as it is left for the people to decide. When the bloc of 30 Opposition parties led by Congress can come together in the name of I.N.D.I.A, what's wrong in these two (BJP-JDS) joining hands," asked Prasad.

Shivaraju, City Police Commissioner Ramesh Banoth, ZP CEO K.M. Gayathri, DCF Saurabh Kumar and others.

Mysuru, Oct. 4 (MTY&BCT)- While focusing on maintaining tradition and avoiding extravagance in this year's Dasara celebrations, District Minister Dr. H.C. Mahadevappa expressed confidence that these festivities would capture global attention and put Mysuru in the spotlight. He made these remarks during a press conference at the Mysore Palace Board Office, where he officially launched the Dasara website https://www.mysore-dasara.gov.in/ and unveiled the posters for this year's festival.

Despite challenging drought conditions in Karnataka, the State Government has allocated Rs. 15 crore to the Kannada and Culture Department for Dasara. Dr. Mahadevappa commented, "Although this year's grant is smaller than last year's, we are committed to making these celebrations memorable while ensuring the safety of all participants."

Efforts are underway to secure sponsorships from private companies in Mysuru and Bengaluru to manage the festival within the constraints of a reduced budget. Part of the preparations involves recreating the traditional Dasara procession to capture its essence.

As part of the festivities, the District Administration is distributing 250 ceremonial dresses to individuals who will walk ahead of the elephants during the procession, reminiscent of the Wadiyars' era. The rural Dasara celebrations will emphasise soil fertility, mixed farming, alternative farming and economic development, according to Dr. Mahadevappa.

To ensure well-organised festivities, 18 different Sub-Committees have been established with the aim of restoring the grandeur of the event. These committees have been actively engaged in discussions with officials and members to plan various rituals and programmes, all of which will uphold constitutional values and promote social harmony.

This year's focus is not only on preserving the traditional aspects of Dasara but also on making it an unforgettable and engaging experience for everyone, despite the challenges posed by a lack of rainfall, noted the Minister.

Additionally, there are plans for a food festival (Aahara Mela), to be held at a single location, reducing the number of food stalls while emphasising culinary diversity. The objective is to offer visitors a more meaningful and diverse dining experience. Discussions are also underway regarding cultural events that will showcase the rich heritage of North Karnataka to a wider audience.

Compared to last year when food festivals were held at two different locations, this year's approach prioritises diversity and aims to reduce the number of identical food stalls, explained Dr. Mahadevappa.

Kannada and Culture Minister Shivaraj Tangadagi also shared insights into the preparations for this year's cultural programs. He mentioned that, similar to last year, there will be a grand Dasara Rangotsava to showcase the cultural heritage of North Karnataka as part of the Dasara festivities. All necessary arrangements have been made to ensure the cultural programmes are conducted meaningfully.

During the previous Dasara celebration, the Dasara Rangotsava was a significant event, and this time, they intend to make it even more magnificent. Discussions have been held with various Dasara Sub-Committees to ensure the seamless organisation of cultural rituals and programmes, he added.

The press conference and poster launch were attended by MLC Dr. D. Thimmaiah, Kannada and Culture Department Secretary Dr. N. Manjula, Deputy Commissioner Dr. K.V. Rajendra, City Police Commissioner Ramesh Banoth, Superintendent of Police Seema Latkar, Zilla Panchayat CEO K.M. Gayathri, Deputy Conservator of Forests Saurabh Kumar, Palace Board Deputy Director T.S. Subramanya and others.

Dasara procession tableaux must celebrate unity, social good

Minister Dr. H.C. Mahadevappa airs suggestions at meeting of Nodal Officers from districts

Mysuru, Oct. 4 (MTY&BCT)- Minister Dr. H.C. Mahadevappa emphasised the need for meaningful tableaux in the Dasara procession, conveying messages of harmony, unity, and societal awareness concerning citizens' constitutional rights and responsibilities.

"Tableaux should serve as vehicles of profound messages, promoting brotherhood, harmony and friendship, while also instilling a sense of civic duty through the Dasara procession," he stated during a preliminary meeting at the Zilla Panchayat Hall yesterday, where Nodal Officers and artists from various districts of Karnataka gathered.

The primary objective behind these tableaux is to advocate for social transformation and raise awareness while honouring the lives and contributions of distinguished social reformers. Dr. Mahadevappa suggested several tableau themes.

Savitribai Phule's pioneering role in women's education, Dr. B.R. Ambedkar and the Constitution-drafting tableau underscoring the importance of equal rights and social justice and another tableau on Nalwadi Krishnaraja Wadiyar showcasing his remarkable contributions to education, agriculture and social justice, while championing these causes during his governance, the Minister said.

These tableaux should creatively bring historical narratives to life, immersing the audience in the struggles and triumphs of these esteemed reformers. The artwork should be captivating, creating an illusion of real-time events.

Artists are encouraged to fully immerse themselves in the creative process to craft exceptional tableaux. The Minister assured ample support and resources.

Furthermore, Dr. Mahadevappa announced that award letters would be presented at the departmental level, with the possibility of individual awards for deserving artists being deliberated with officials.

To ensure the seamless execution of the procession, art troupes from each district will accompany their respective tableaux. Only designated officers and staff members will be allowed to participate, maintaining adherence to the specified tableau dimensions set by the district administration concerning width, height, and length.

MLC Dr. D. Thimmaiah, Kannada and Culture Department Secretary Dr. N. Manjula, Deputy Commissioner Dr. K.V. Rajendra, City Police Commissioner Ramesh Banoth, Superintendent of Police Seema Latkar, Zilla Panchayat Chief Executive Officer (CEO) K.M. Gayathri were present.

India wins The Vaccine War!

Jaya Ho Bharat, Jaya Ho Narendra Modi

Narendra Modi

Prof. Balram Bhargava

Vivek Agnihotri

Nana Patekar

Last evening I spent 161 minutes watching the movie 'The Vaccine War' and returned home feeling terribly guilty as a journalist. I also felt like a minor hero because I never compromised as a journalist and sold myself for 30 pieces of silver.

The film is about India's success in producing anti-COVID vaccine within a short period competing with other advanced countries. This despite efforts from other countries to sabotage the efforts of our scientists to find a vaccine and by a section of our journalistic fraternity, joining hands with foreign companies and crying hoarse, 'We can't, we can't.' The theme of the film was how the sinister 'India can't' narrative was re-written as 'India can'.

However, the boss of the Indian Council of Medical Research (ICMR), played by Nana Patekar (delivering a sterling performance with a strong screen presence as dominant as that of a Dilip Kumar and an Amitabh Bachchan), inspired, motivated and even intimidated the scientists and defeated those naysayers who said 'India can't.'

These India baiters wanted the Government to import the vaccine discrediting the vaccine produced by our scientists as 'substandard' etc. But the clarion call of ICMR Chief to his team was 'India can'. He wanted to tell the prophets of doom in our country and abroad that they were wrong. I observed that in the team of scientists there were more than 33 percent women! This was before our Parliament passed the Women's Reservation Bill !! Did you get me Steve?

It may be recalled that the home-made Coronavirus vaccine 'Covaxin' was produced post-haste, under the most inspiring leadership of Prime Minister Narendra Modi by the Bharat Biotech in collaboration with the National Institute of Virology (NIV) and Indian Council of Medical Research (ICMR).

Even though the film is more than two-and-a-half hours long and sans songs, fights and overcharged emotions, it holds the attention of the viewer throughout.

The vaccine project was undertaken on a war-footing. Everything had to be done 'immediately.' There was no 'afterwards' or tomorrow. There was no room for Government red-tape nor time for family life.

I should admire the genius of the Film Director Vivek Agnihotri for delineating the story without scenes of disturbing human emotions of tears and fears in the face of the risk to life and family involved in the project to each scientist. The Director has shown all these human emotions in a touching way but in a subtle manner.

The film features Nana Patekar, Pallavi Joshi and our own Kannada 'Kantara' hit film's heroine Sapthami Gowda with a cameo role. If Director Vivek Agnihotri presented to us the darker tragic side of our country in the film 'The Kashmir Files' here, in contrast, he is presenting the brighter, pleasant side of our country. This is a film to inform our people, specially who survived the COVID pandemic, about the life-saving work done by our scientists. The film recognises and honours the risk taken and the commitments made by those scientists and the medical persons during those dark days of the demonic COVID pandemic.

The film is based on the book 'Going Viral' by Prof. Balram Bhargava, Director General of ICMR. Nana Patekar has played the role of Prof. Balram Bhargava in the film. Interestingly, the film uses a few quotes from Vedas and Upanishads to create an Indian ethos, nay of the Sanatana Dharma. I learn the film is no box office hit. No matter. But those who say 'India first' or like the Englishmen who say 'Right or wrong my country' must go and see the film. I promise it is worth seeing because you will understand India and its people better and also what our people are capable of given the proper environment.

May the truth prevail and naysayers fail.

LATERAL THOUGHT: After seeing the film, a thought crossed my mind about all those who are science students and those working in research institutions and organisations, including industries, where they have science laboratories. Those who are studying science subjects in colleges and working in organisations like CFTRI, DFRL, CSRTI, even Milk Dairy and such science-oriented institutions, must go and see this film so that they can inculcate the spirit of scientific temperament in pursuit of their profession as Scientists and also imbibe patriotic values as citizens of this country.

Like for example, sense of nationalism, national pride and above all placing the interest of our country above personal interest. This is what our scientists at National Institute of Virology, Indian Council of Medical Research and Bharat Biotech taught us when they won the vaccine war.

'Chamundi Betta Chalo' on Oct. 13 to counter 'Mahisha Dasara'

MP Pratap Simha addressing a press meet at City BJP Office this morning, as Mayor Shivakumar, BJP District Spokesman Dr. B. Vasanth Kumar and other leaders look on.

Mysuru, Oct. 4 (MTY&BS)- Mysuru-Kodagu MP Pratap Simha, has announced a protest event 'Chamundi Betta Chalo' on Oct. 13 in the city. This protest is in response to the 'Mahisha Dasara' being organised by the 'Mahisha Dasara' Celebration Committee at Chamundi Hill on the same day.

'Mahisha Dasara' is celebrated parallel to Nada Habba Dasara by a section of progressive thinkers to change the narrative about demon king Mahishasura (as known in mythology) as a benevolent king.

Pratap Simha made this announcement during a press conference held at the City BJP Office in Chamarajapuram this morning. He stated that 'Chamundi Betta Chalo' will begin at the foot of Chamundi Hill at 8 am on Oct. 13. Additionally, anyone interested in joining the protest can also reach the hilltop by their vehicles.

It's expected that over 5,000 people will gather on the Hill for this movement and he mentioned that they would be seeking permission from the Deputy Commissioner since day-long programmes are planned for that day.

He emphasised his commitment to using peaceful means to stop 'Mahisha Dasara' and called on all 11 MLAs of Mysuru district, as well as MLCs with devotion to Goddess Chamundeshwari, to participate in the protest.

He also recalled how 'Mahisha Dasara' celebrations started during the previous tenure of Chief Minister Siddharamaiah in 2015-16 and continued for three consecutive years. However, it was discontinued when the BJP Government came to power. Now, it's making a return after a hiatus, he pointed out.

Regarding the Dasara festival, the MP noted that it has been celebrated for 414 years, regardless of the political parties in power or the Chief Ministers. "One cannot compare Dasara with 'Mahisha Dasara'. People know what is Dasara celebration and the festival is etched in their minds. This 'Mahisha Dasara' was born in 2015-2016 and the then Government made no attempts to stop this practice. The BJP Government put an end to this practice," he said.

The MP stated that this year's Dasara festival would uphold tradition despite the prevailing drought conditions in the State. Pratap Simha also commented on the recent violent incident in Shivamogga and attributed the recurrence of such incidents to the withdrawal of cases against activists of Popular Front of India (PFI) and Karnataka Forum for Dignity (KFD).

Furthermore, he criticised State Congress leaders for not addressing the Cauvery water dispute with Tamil Nadu Chief Minister M. K. Stalin. "Karnataka Congress leaders do not have the nerve to speak against Stalin," he charged.

In another development, former JD(S) MLA S.R. Mahesh visited the City BJP Office, which raised eyebrows given the recent alliance between JD(S) and BJP ahead of the 2024 Parliamentary elections. However, Mahesh's visit was personal and non-political, as he came to invite leaders to his son Dr. Dhanush's upcoming wedding.

Mayor Shivakumar, City BJP Working President H.P. Giridhar, BJP District Spokesman Dr. B. Vasanth Kumar, as well as leaders Cable Mahesh, M.S. Mahesh Raje Urs, Somasundar and Gowrish were present.

Dasara Yuva Sambhrama-2023

1,200 students from 400 College troupes to showcase talents

Mysuru, Oct. 4 (RK&BS) - As part of Nada Habba, Dasara Yuva Sambhrama has been organised from Oct. 6 to 13 at Open Air Theatre in Manasagangothri.

Actor-couple of Sandalwood Vashista Simha and Haripriya will be the star attractions as chief guests during the inaugural session, with Mysuru District Minister Dr. H. C. Mahadevappa doing the honours on Oct. 6 at 5 pm.

Superintendent of Police (SP) Seema Latkar, who is also the Dasara Deputy Special Officer, gave the details of the event, after releasing the posters of Dasara Yuva Sambrama at her Office in the city this noon.

"In all, 1,200 students from 400 college troupes from across the State will be showcasing their talent in dance during the cultural programmes organised as part of Yuva Sambhrama daily from 5 pm to 10 pm. Only a troupe of maximum up to 30 students from each college will be allowed to participate, with 50 teams to perform on each day.

SP Seema Latkar releasing the poster of Dasara Yuva Sambhrama-2023 in city this noon as Sub-Committee members R. Prathap, Executive Engineer, V.R. Shylaja, Registrar, University of Mysore and Dr. R. Ningaraju of Sociology Department, University Evening College look on.

The duration for every troupe will be five minutes," said SP Seema Latkar.

The cultural programmes will be choreographed on 20 various themes like Karnataka Government's Guarantee Schemes, Fake News - Effects and Regulation, Grandeur of Mysore Dasara, Role of Nalwadi Krishnaraja Wadiyar in Building a Model State, Contributions of Mysore Province to Scientific Progress in the wake of Chandrayaan-3 Mission, Youths Taking The Path Towards Books from Mobile Phones, Indian Freedom Movement, Women's Empowerment and Gender Equality in Unification of Karnataka, Art of Self-Defence for Women, Role of Youth Force in India's Sustainable Development, Integrity in Diversity, Awareness on Constitutional Rights and Duties to Strengthen Democracy to name a few.

ACP Parashuramappa confirmed that the bike had been seized, and a case had been registered. He explained that the drive aims to confiscate vehicles with fake number plates and licence plates featuring designs and artwork. Altering number plates is a violation as they become nearly undetectable even by high-resolution cameras, allowing vehicles to escape after committing a crime.

The size and format of registration marks and numerals on number plates must adhere to Central Motor Vehicles Rules. Registration marks should be in English letters, with figures in Arabic numerals, he said.

Several of the questionable plates featured numbers written in vernacular scripts or styled in fancy fonts that resembled words. Using such fancy number plates is a punishable offence under the provisions of the Central Motor Vehicles Act, resulting in fines. Vendors of car number plates have also been instructed not to create such non-compliant licence boards.

According to Sections 50 and 51 of the Central Motor Vehicles Act of 1989, no names or pictures other than the registration marks of the vehicle should be displayed on number plates. Standardisation of colours, fonts, plate content, font size, and clarity is essential. All numbers should be black on white for non-commercial vehicles, including two-wheelers, while commercial vehicles should have yellow boards with black letters or digits.

10 short films selected from 65 entries for Dasara Film Fest

Mysuru, Oct. 4 (MTY&BS)- A total of 10 short films have been selected for screening at the upcoming Dasara Film Festival. A panel of five jurists reviewed and selected the best short films from among the 65 entries submitted to the Tourism Department.

These short films, which carry important societal messages, will be showcased at Inox in Mall of Mysore on M.G. Road in Mysuru during the festival.

The jury members include faculty member from the Department of Sculpture at Chamarajendra Government College of Visual Arts Veeranna M. Arkasali, Assistant Professor at Maharani's Arts College for Women Dr. Hemachandra, theatre artiste Mime Ramesh, journalist Dr. Kudli Gururaj and cinematographer Nireekshit. They diligently reviewed the short films based on specific guidelines to select the top entries.

The Dasara Film Festival Sub-Committee, set up by the Tourism Department, received 65 entries from filmmakers across Karnataka, including Mysuru and Bengaluru, as part of Dasara Film Festival 2023. These selected short films will contribute to the cultural enrichment of the festival.

Officials present during the selection process included Special Officer of Dasara Film Festival Sub-Committee and Joint Director of Tourism Department M.K. Savitha, Working President and Land Acquisition Officer of Karnataka Industrial Area Development Board (KIADB) Priyadarshini, Secretary and Deputy Director of the Department of Information and Public Relations Ashok Kumar and Co-Secretary and Assistant Director of Information and Public Relations T.K. Harish Kumar.

Congress, BJP, JD(S) and legal team

During the tenures of the Congress, BJP and JD(S), the Supreme Court issued several orders pertaining to the Cauvery issue. However, Arjunahalli Prasanna Kumar lamented that legal representatives and political leaders from Karnataka failed to offer clear guidance on arguments or strategies to safeguard the State's interests during those critical times. They seemingly lacked the commitment to prevent injustices befalling Karnataka.

He asserted, "All these parties remained passive when the dispute raged and played politics when they were in Opposition. In the end, the interests of Karnataka's farmers and water consumers were compromised. Congress, BJP and JD(S) must share equal blame for this situation."

He went on to explain that the construction of Mekedatu balancing reservoir would not provide a solution to the water dispute. The location, situated in a densely forested area and falling within an elephant corridor, makes obtaining permission from the Union Ministry of Environment and Forests a formidable task. In the light of this, he called upon the State Government to press the Union Government to devise a new national water policy.

Highlighting the historical injustices faced by Karnataka in the Cauvery matter, Arjunahalli Prasanna Kumar emphasised the urgent need for a re-examination petition to be submitted to the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court. This petition should underscore Karnataka's historical suffering in the Cauvery River water dispute, especially given the current situation where Tamil Nadu receives an excessive share of water due to deficient rainfall.

He noted that Article 261 of the Constitution provides a potential avenue for resolving the Cauvery River water dispute. If the Supreme Court rejects the plea to establish a full Bench, it must be brought to the President's attention. The President can then constitute an expert committee, and based on its recommendations, devise a new scheme. This pathway offers a means to secure justice for Karnataka in the Cauvery River water dispute, he explained.

Arjunahalli Prasanna Kumar argued that the ongoing injustices faced by Karnataka in the Cauvery issue primarily stem from the inability of the Karnataka's representatives to present a compelling case in the Supreme Court.

"Each time Tamil Nadu filed an application in the Supreme Court regarding the Cauvery issue, our representatives allegedly failed to present a robust argument," he said. This failure, he contended, has been the core reason behind Karnataka's continuous suffering in the Cauvery matter.

Despite various challenges and mistakes, the root cause of Karnataka's problems in the Cauvery issue lies in the mishandling of the case by those responsible for representing Karnataka's interests, he added.

The interaction was attended by MDJA City Vice-President M.S. Basavanna (Anurag Basavaraj), General Secretary M. Subramanya and State Committee member Raghavendra.

Bharat and the cricket-lovers across the globe are keenly awaiting the festival — 'The Festival of Cricket; the ICC World Cup 2023' — commencing on Oct. 5 (Thursday). While Google, of late, is full of predictions as to the last four on the ladder, the competition looks stiff.

Cricket is a 'Mind Game.' One or two wickets in the first five overs, the bowling side is all over the batting side, like a rash. Cautious but confident and aggressive start by openers will leave the bowlers thinking. Irony today is that even a 300-plus chase looks attainable; and that is what we want; close encounters and Net Run Rate (NRR) determining the fate of the best.

Historically, cricket is known to be a game of 'Glorious Uncertainties,' and this time it will not be any different. New Zealanders have been the Finalists on both previous occasions. They are an excellent bunch now. Sri Lanka has demonstrated the skills to pull a 'Rabbit out of the Hat'; in T20 format though.

England is surely a side of extraordinary all-round strength and look favourites. Pakistan matches England in every department; especially their bowling. On their overall strength, both are likely to be on the top four.

India, that is Bharat, has the full potential to blossom; top four batsmen need to provide strong foundation. Bowlers need consistency in line and length. Rohit Sharma, Shubman Gill, Virat Kohli, Shreyas Iyer and Suryakumar Yadav should ensure that role. Bowlers need to complement. Mind you, at the 30th over, 2 down at 150 would look far better than 5 down.

ICC MEN'S CRICKET WORLD CUP INDIA 2023

How I wish Australia, South Africa and West Indies had the same vigour and vitality of the past. Surely, the contest would have had a better/ interesting edge. South Africa is unable to find competent youngsters to replace the likes of Hashim Amla, AB de Villiers, Jacques Kallis, Faf du Plessis, Graeme Smith, JP Duminy, Dale Steyn, Morne Morkel, etc. Their batting of SA looks a little suspect. Their bowling, Lungi Ngidi, Kagiso Rabada, Marco Jansen, on their day, can make best batsmen across board to dance to their tunes.

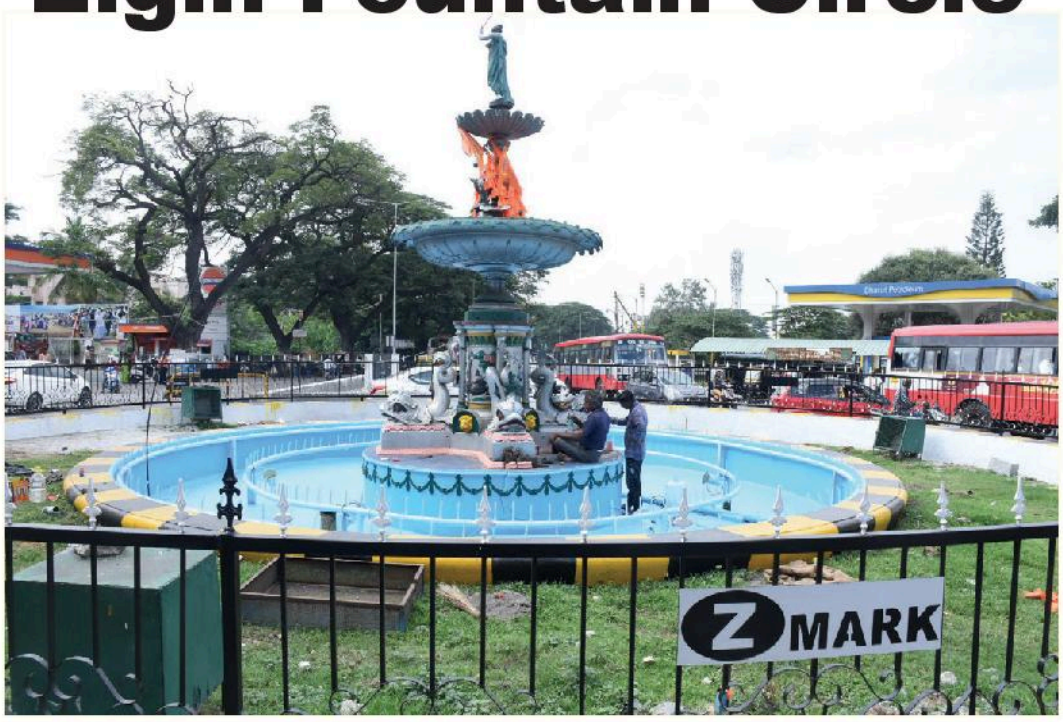
OZs are an ageing side — devoid of the class of the Steve Waugh, Darren Lehmann, Michael Bevan, Michael Hussey, etc; Marnus Labuschagne, Steve Smith and Cameron Green not consistent at all. They, however, hold a record of lifting the trophy 5 times and twice runners-up. Their bowling strength looks good.

West Indies look all at sea, having made it to the top TEN by the skin of their teeth. But, these guys can be unpredictable; because they don't take anything seriously — life and cricket.

So, purely by merits, my take is that England, Pakistan, Bharat (India) and New Zealand will be in top four. Dark Horses will surely emerge and silence the Pundits.

We await a great tournament and may the best team lift the trophy.

Beautification of Elgin Fountain Circle



Mysuru, Oct. 4 (RK&KS)- The historic Elgin Fountain Circle at the junction of Mysuru-Bengaluru Road and Ashoka Road is being beautified with a fresh coat of paint and erection of new iron grills around the structure for its safety.

The Mysuru City Corporation (MCC) has issued the work order to a city land developer to beautify and maintain the Fountain Circle for three years.

Zubair of Z Mark Land Developers said that as a Mysurean he wanted to take up the beatification of this historic Circle at his own cost as the three Circles — Manipal Hospital Junction, Five Lights Circle and the Fountain Circle — are the first prominent structures that tourists witness as they enter Mysuru.

He informed that while his company had got permission and work order for beautifying the Fountain Circle, they are yet to get permission to take up beautification works of the Five Lights Circle and Manipal Hospital Junction.

Thanks to DC

It may be recalled that the MCC had proposed to demolish this Fountain Circle and construct one with a new design. But during the meeting of the Heritage Conservation Sub-Committee held in February, the Committee members informed the Mysuru Deputy Commissioner (DC) that it was unwise to demolish the historic Elgin Fountain which was erected in honour of the visit of Lord Elgin, the Viceroy to Mysore, on November 20, 1895.

Dr. Rajendra

Responding to the request, DC Dr. K.V. Rajendra asked the MCC to drop the proposal to demolish and instead beautify it in the "as-is" state and preserve its heritage value.

Now, Z Mark has taken up the beautification works and will maintain the Circle for three years.

MLA, Cops inspect roads for smooth traffic movement during Dasara

Mysuru, Oct. 4 (PM&BS)-With 11 days to go for the inauguration of Dasara festival on Oct.15, KR MLA T.S. Srivatsa conducted inspection to ensure ease in traffic movement, by providing the required facilities for tourists and general public alike in the city.

MLA Srivatsa along with ACP (Traffic) Parashuramappa and Inspector of Siddarthanagar Traffic Station Yogesh inspected the black spots, especially where accidents are reported frequently, in view of the arrival of tourists that may lead to surge in traffic density including the movement of people and vehicles causing several hurdles.

Speaking on the occasion, MLA Srivatsa said "We have to take adequate measures to prevent any trouble for the tourists and residents of the city during Dasara. Hence I have shown some of the prominent spots to ACP (Traffic) to fix the loopholes."

Continuing, MLA Srivatsa said "We have inspected those spots where traffic density is high, where the rate of accidents is high and also wherever the road humps (speed breakers) are required to be laid. The inspection was conducted near Manandavadi Road junction, Century Park, Nazarbad Police Station, old Regency Theatre and a hotel nearby where the sharp curves are located."

The public also have aired several grievances, especially at Southern part of the city where the issues have to be addressed. "Our intention is to remove the road humps laid near Jockey factory in Visvesvaraya Industrial Suburb, Nachanahalli Palya and HD Kote road to enable smooth flow of traffic," he added.

Corporator Chayadevi, City BJP Backward Classes Wing President Jogi Manju, BJP leaders Gokul Govardhan, Pradeep Kumar, Jairam, Jagadish, K.M. Nishanth, Manoj, Prasanna, Kishore, Khandesh, Chetan and others accompanied the MLA during inspection.

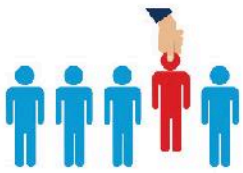
WORD OF THE DAY

Nepotism



Pronunciation: NEP-uh-tiz-um.
Meaning: Nepotism refers to favoritism based on kinship, unfair practice of giving jobs to relatives.
Origin: We happen to have neither Merriams nor Websters on our staff at Merriam-Webster, and familial connections to the company's founders do not provide an advantage to job applicants. If it were otherwise, we might be accused of nepotism—that is, favoritism based on kinship. English speakers have kept nepotism in the family since the late 1600s, having adopted it from the French, who were inspired by Gregorio Leti's 1667 book Il nipotismo di Roma (The History of the Popes' Nephews). The book explores a practice introduced by Pope Sixtus IV: during his papacy in the late 15th century he granted many special favors to members of his family, in particular to his nephews. This practice of papal favoritism was carried on by his near successors. Today, nepotism is associated with business and politics. In recent informal English use, the shortened form nepo has been hitched to the denigrating term baby to refer to celebrities who had a parent (or two) who were also in entertainment industry.
Example: "Venture to a certain corner of the Internet, and you'll find an uncanny kind of social satire: that of the wishful work design. There's the made-up meeting punctuality score, which tells you who among your invitees is most likely to show up to the brainstorm 10 minutes late. Or the fictitious LinkedIn nepotism disclosure, which adds a label to tell you which manager is actually just related to the boss." — Gabriela Riccardi, Quartz, 12 July 2023

THE ODD WORD

Napifolious

Having leaves like a turnip.

PHRASE OF THE DAY

No room to swing a cat

Meaning: The phrase 'No room to swing a cat' is used to describe a very small or cramped space.
Origin: This expression, first recorded in the year 1771, is thought to imply the cat-o'-nine-tails, or "cat," a whip with nine lashes used at the time to punish felons in the British military.
Example: "It's a cute house, but there's no room to swing a cat."
